("Foundation") recognizes the perpetuity of Florida A&M University ("FAMU") and therefore adopts a long term, total return investment philosophy designed to accomplish the primary goal of the Foundation to provide significant funding support to the University, its students and faculty over its perpetual time horizon. The Investment Committee believes that a well-diversified, high-quality, professionally managed investment program will attain the investment goal of growing the Foundation assets at an annualized rate that when added to annual gifts/contributions will equal or exceed the Foundation’s annualized rates of spending and inflation.

2. SCOPE OF THIS INVESTMENT POLICY

7. GENERAL INVESTMENT PRINCIPLES

7.1. Investments shall be made solely in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Foundation.
7.2. The Fund shall be invested with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the investment of a fund of like character and with like aims.
7.3. The Fund shall be managed on a Total Return (appreciation plus income) basis.
7.4. Investment of the Fund shall be so diversified as to minimize the risk of relatively large, sustained losses substantially in excess of similarly situated foundations of comparable size.
7.5. The Fund assets shall be managed to minimize cash holdings, which are to be employed productively at all times, by investment in short term cash equivalents to provide safety, liquidity, and return.
8. INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT POLICY

8.1. Preservation of Capital. Consistent with their respective investment styles and philosophies, investment managers should make reasonable efforts to preserve capital over the Foundation’s investment horizon, understanding that losses may occur in individual securities or in aggregate over shorter periods of time.

8.2. Risk Aversion. Understanding that risk is present in all types of securities and investment styles, the Investment Committee recognizes that some risk is necessary to produce long-term investment results that are sufficient to meet the Foundation’s primary objective of achieving consistent real (inflation and expenditures adjusted) growth of total assets. Risk of any individual investment component will always be viewed and considered within the risk level of the Fund total investment structure. However, the investment managers are to make reasonable efforts to control risk, and will be evaluated regularly to ensure that the risk assumed is commensurate with the given investment style and objectives.

8.3. Adherence to Investment Discipline. Investment managers are expected to adhere to the investment management styles for which they were hired. Managers will be evaluated regularly for adherence to investment discipline.

9. THE GOAL OF FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION, INC.

The Foundation Board of Directors believes that spending support for scholarships and grants to be made in the future are as important as scholarships and grants made today. This is consistent with the philosophy that FAMU and the Foundation will exist in perpetuity. Consequently, the Foundation’s goal is to annually provide FAMU with funding for scholarships and grant making in perpetuity. To attain this goal, the overriding objective of the Foundation is to maintain spending purchasing power. That is, the objective is to annually grow the aggregate Fund value at a rate equal to, or in excess of, Annual Foundation Spending plus the rate of inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index (CPI) plus one percent over the Foundation's perpetual investment horizon.

10. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

In order to meet its needs, the investment strategy of the Foundation is to emphasize total return; that is, the aggregate returns from capital appreciation and dividend and interest income. Specifically, the objectives in the investment management of Foundation assets shall be:

10.1. Preservation of Purchasing Power. After giving consideration to minimum annual gifts/contributions, to achieve annual total returns in excess of CPI +1% plus spending over the investment horizon in order to preserve purchasing power of Fund assets.

10.2. Long-Term Growth of Capital. To emphasize long-term growth of principal while controlling excessive risk. Short-term (one year or less) volatility of Total Fund values will be tolerated in as much as it is consistent with the volatility of a comparable market index.

10.3. Liquidity. To ensure the ability of the Fund to meet all expected or unexpected annual cash flow needs by investing a minimum of 80% of all Foundation assets in securities which can be sold readily and efficiently.

11. SPECIFIC INVESTMENT GOALS
11.1. Over the investment horizon established in this statement, it is the goal of the Foundation to grow total assets at a rate that will equal or exceed on an average compounded annual basis:

11.1.1. The rate of Annual Foundation Spending plus CPI + 1%, after giving consideration to minimum annual gifts/contributions.
11.1.2. An absolute rate of return of 7.0%.
11.1.3. The return of a custom blended composite market index.

11.2. The investment goals above are the objectives of the Foundation’s aggregate funds, and are not meant to be imposed on each investment account (if more than one account is used). The goal of each investment manager, over the investment horizon, shall be to:

11.2.1. Meet or exceed the market index, or blended market index, selected and agreed upon by the Investment Committee that most closely corresponds to the style of investment management, on a trailing three and five year basis.
11.2.2. Display an overall level of risk in the portfolio that is consistent with the risk associated with the benchmark specified above. Risk will be measured by the standard deviation of quarterly returns.

11.3. Specific investment goals and constraints for each investment manager, if any, shall be incorporated as part of this statement of investment policy.

12. DEFINITION OF RISK

12.1. The Investment Committee realizes that there are many ways to define risk. It believes that any person or organization involved in the process of managing the Foundation assets, understands how it defines risk so that the assets are managed in a manner consistent with the Foundation's objectives and investment strategy as designed in this statement of investment policy.

12.2. The Investment Committee defines risk as the probability of not meeting the Florida A&M University Foundation's goals and objectives as defined in this policy statement.

13. LIQUIDITY

13.1. To minimize the possibility of a loss occasioned by the sale of a security forced by the need to meet a required payment, the Investment Committee will periodically provide the investment counsel with an estimate of expected net cash flow. The Investment Committee will notify the Consultant in a timely manner, to allow sufficient time to build up necessary liquid reserves.

13.2. To maintain the ability to deal with unplanned cash requirements that might arise, the Investment Committee will allow up to $1,000,000 in short term credit to be established, collateralized by the Foundation's assets.

14. MARKETABILITY OF ASSETS

The Investment Committee requires that a minimum of 70% of all of Foundation assets be invested in liquid securities, defined as securities that can be transacted quickly and efficiently for the Foundation, with minimal impact on market price. Up to 30% of Foundation assets may be invested in other less liquid investments such as direct ownership of real estate property, and alternative investments such as Private Equity/Venture Capital, that may require a year or more to liquidate. The Investment Committee will consider the liquidity of all investments prior to acquisition.

Most derivative securities are derived from equity or fixed income securities and are packaged in the form of securities such as options, futures, collateralized mortgage obligations (planned amortization class bonds, interest only strips, payment only strips, residual bonds, etc.), and interest rate swaps, among others. Certain derivative securities are relatively new and therefore have not been observed over multiple economic cycles, while others have performance track records that may be observed over sufficiently long periods of time. Generally, the Investment Committee will take a moderate posture on derivative securities. Since it is anticipated that new derivative products will be created each year, it is not the intention of this document to list specific derivatives that are prohibited from investment, rather it will form a general policy on derivatives.

15.2.2. So long as they conform to the guidelines and risk tolerances established in this statement of investment policy, specifically, conforming to the Investment Manager’s approved benchmark standard deviation, the Investment Manager(s) may invest Foundation assets in derivative securities. If the Investment Manager wishes to invest in derivatives that will cause the portfolio’s benchmark standard deviation to increase 15% or more above the benchmark’s historical 5 year average standard deviation, The Investment Manager must seek approval from the Investment Committee prior to investing in such derivatives.

Such investment managers will receive written direction from the Investment Committee regarding specific objectives and guidelines.

15.6. Diversification for Each Investment Manager
15.6.1. The Investment Committee does not believe it is necessary or desirable that securities held in the Fund represent a cross section of the economy. Unless otherwise specifically stated in a manager addendum, each investment manager may invest and reinvest the assets in a diversified portfolio of fully negotiable, fixed income, equity and money market securities provided they meet the criteria delineated in sections 15.7, 15.8, 15.9 and/or 15.10, respectively.

15.10.2. The asset classification of the fund will be based upon its investment objective.

16. SELECTION OF INVESTMENT MANAGERS

The Investment Committee's selection of Investment Manager(s) will be based on prudent due diligence procedures that include a comprehensive review of the manager candidates’ qualitative and quantitative history. A qualifying investment manager must be a registered investment advisor under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, or a bank or insurance company.
